- - - - WHO IS ADAM? - - - - sources: WiKi, BibleGateway, LDS

Adam [in WiKi] is a figure in the Book of Genesis of the Hebrew and Christian bibles, and is also in the Quran; the creation myth of the Abrahamic religions is that he was the first man

The King James Version of the bible shares Adam's creation:

"7. The Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being"

and later the creation of Eve:

"21. God caused a deep sleep to fall on Adam, and he slept; and He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place.

22. Then the rib was made into a woman, and God brought her to the man" [I tweaked the Biblical wording for clarity]

LDS shares that Adam is the name given to the first man of the Biblical human family on this earth, as cited in the account of the Creation in the book of Genesis; he is also referenced in stories of Moses, Abraham, etc and in many instances in the New Testament, the Book of Mormon, and in Doctrines and Covenants-from these Biblical scriptures we are told that Adam is the father and patriarch of the human race on the earth. As the Ancient of Days, he is also known as Michael, the archangel who will [sic] "come again to the earth in power and glory as the patriarch of the human family, preparatory to the Second Coming of Jesus Christ"

In both Genesis and Quran, Adam and his wife were expelled from the Garden of Eden for eating the fruit of the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

The scriptures also certify that his transgression in the Garden of Eden, although designated as a "fall," was necessary to the advancement and spiritual progress of humanity on this earth, and Adam rightly should be honored, not denigrated
